

A short interview with Alix Ly:

 Art gives me... a way to express what I can't express because I keep my thoughts to myself.*

 I compare art to... a window where we could perceive another way of seeing the world.*

 Nature is for me... a refill oxygen where I forget the grey of the street and my little problems.*

 I am a part of Sunflowers Art Association because... I would like to exchange ideas with others artists.*

 I am dreaming of... evolving in my art, again and again...*
