Who We Are

- Sunflowers is an international art association, founded in 2009 and based in Berlin, Germany.
- We are an intercultural art network comprised of those interested in visual arts – painting, photography, sculpture, mixed media.
- Our projects focus on:
 - the correlation between nature & art
 - visual arts eclecticism
 - social engagement programs

Our Target Group

- Innovative and motivated international artists with environmental values
- Professional associations, museums, galleries, art & cultural institutions
- Ecological organizations
- Art collectors & sponsors
- Private or public investors
- Curators, arts critics, journalists, cultural managers, art marketing specialists

Our Goals Are

- To achieve coalescence and mutual enrichment of the visual arts
- To encourage the cultural exchange between artists, art enthusiasts and art mediators
- To draw attention to environmental & social issues, through the medium of art
- To promote innovative artists

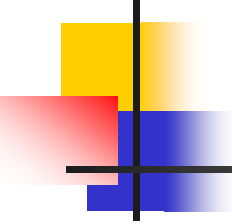

Community
