

A short interview with Maria Veleva:

*The most important thing what you should know about me is That freedom and love are the most essential things in my life

* Art gives me the opportunity of free expression

* I compare art to the nature, and the creation of an artist to the creation of God

* Nature is for me personal expression of God's freedom and love

* I am a part of Sunflowers Art Association because I like playing with light and colours

* I find most fascinating in life the reflection on it, which is an attribute to us as a human beings

* I am dreaming of new horizons
